Opening: “Jan-Ole Schiemann” at Half Gallery

A German painter who lives and works in Cologne, Jan-Ole Schiemann makes his New York solo debut with a new series of abstract paintings and drawings inspired by the cartoons of Max Fleischer, creator of Betty Boop. A recent graduate of the Kunstakademie Düsseldorf, where he studied with artists Albert Oehlen and Andreas Schultz, Mr. Schiemann inaugurated the Mier Gallery in Los Angeles with his comical abstract works earlier this year.

Half Gallery, 43 East 78th Street, 6-8 p.m.
